DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's traversal filed 11/13/2007 of the restriction/election has been fully considered but is not persuasive.

The traversal is on the ground that since the claims of Groups I and II are process and apparatus for its practice claims.

Applicant's traversal is unpersuasive. The claims of group I are drawn to a sedation/analgesia system while. The claims of group II are drawn to a method for providing orthogonal redundancy in a sedation/analgesia system. However, the device of Group I could be used for a materially different purpose – using the device with sedation/analgesia drugs is not even claimed; whereas the claims of Group II disclose a method of using a sedation/analgesia system which include steps not present in the device of claim I.

The restriction among the different methods is maintained.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(p), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eggers et al (US 5,713,856).

Eggers et al disclose in Figure 2 a system comprising two or more health monitor devices (150); a user interface (102); an electronic controller (120) including memory storing safety data connected with the monitors, effectors, and the user interface.

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Smith et al (US 2003/0029453).

Smith et al disclose in Figure 1 a system comprising two or more health monitor devices (E,F,G,H); a user interface (D); an electronic controller (I) including memory storing safety data connected with the monitors, effectors, and the user interface (L).

3. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bui (US 2003/0125662).

Bui discloses in Figure 8 a system comprising two or more health monitor devices (16a, 16b); a user interface; an electronic controller (26) including memory storing safety data connected with the monitors, effectors, and the user interface.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of U.S. Patent No. 7,229,430 and 7,247,154. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they disclose the same inventions.

5. Claims 1-9 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of copending Application No. 10/285689; 10/677482; 10/677481; 10/439328; 11/783546; and 10/265639. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they disclose the same inventions.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
